SUBJECT: Classroom for Project USEFUL * 2

1. Get together with [REDACTED] and see if an alternative classroom for Project USEFUL can be found [REDACTED] 117 Central is overloaded in the Introduction Course to a point where further backlog would place OTR in serious difficulty. The opening and closing sessions can be held in 117 Central without prejudice to the Introduction Course, but the main auditorium [REDACTED] if it is not otherwise engaged would get us out of this difficulty. If this is not available, see [REDACTED] in the Operations School and find out where else the course could be run. Keep me posted.

2. The Director will not be available to open the session, but we think General Cabell will, although we have not yet received a reply to this effect.

3. Some nominations have come in; they are in [REDACTED] possession. Be sure to mop up on the badges so that they have excess to the right buildings.

4. We have learned from [REDACTED] that at the Naval War College all hands have been advised that coffee is 5¢ per cup not a day.
